Announcing Steve Langerud's Retirement and Kellie McGriff's Promotion as Mayflower Community Executive Director

Following five years as the Executive Director of Mayflower Homes, Inc. Steve Langerud has retired and transitioned the role to Kellie McGriff, BSN, NHA effective October 10, 2023. In addition to Executive Director, McGriff will continue her current role as Nursing Home Administrator.

During his tenure, Langerud utilized his experience as a trusted thinking partner and workplace culture consultant to lead a strategic planning effort supporting Mayflower's long-term goals, while navigating the effects of the global pandemic and a derecho storm.

“Mayflower has benefited from Steve's ability to envision a Mayflower that is strong enough to move into the next 75 years.” says Theresa Pagliai, former Chair, Mayflower Board of Trustees. “He is a bridge builder; he's been able to see the big picture and translate what's important to an organization, to its budget, and to its strategic plan. “He's shown us the ability to reframe situations and people's stories to deliver the best outcome.”

As Kellie McGriff transitioned into the Executive Director role this month, McGriff is no stranger to the Mayflower Community. After two decades in senior care leadership positions and obtaining a Bachelor of Science in Nursing and a National Nursing Home Administrator's license from the State of Iowa, McGriff returned to Mayflower five years ago to serve as the Mayflower Administrator alongside Langerud.

“I am thrilled to share that my trusted colleague and friend, Kellie McGriff, will be the new Executive Director of Mayflower Homes, Inc.” says Langerud. “Kellie lives the Mayflower mission every day with her innovative leadership in operations and future direction of the Mayflower. Kellie's leadership roles with industry leading organizations outside the Mayflower support Kellie's nuanced understanding of this industry both operationally and politically.”

“The Board of Trustees is unanimous in its support for Kellie,” says Jim Ramsey, incoming Chair, Mayflower Board of Trustees. “Her depth of experience in the healthcare industry and collaborative leadership style will position Mayflower to flourish for years to come.”

McGriff currently serves on the Iowa Health Care Quality Partners (IHCQP) and is active with the Iowa Health Care Association (IHCA) as an advocate for legislative, reimbursement issues, and quality care for senior living. At Mayflower Homes, Inc., McGriff has led innovation initiatives around community life and well-being, technology transformation, business and finance policy and systems, health care systems, and employee wellness.

“Kellie is a tremendous choice to carry out the next chapter in Mayflower's legacy,” says Brent Willett, President and CEO, Iowa Health Care Association. “I have worked with her for years and know how committed she is to her residents and the community at large.”

Located in Grinnell, Iowa, the Mayflower Community began in 1950 as a ministry of the United Church of Christ and has evolved to a life plan community offering independent living, assisted living, and skilled nursing care for adults over the age of 55. More than 250 people live in the Mayflower Community's patio homes, independent living apartments, assisted living, and health center. More information is available at mayflowerhomes.com, or by calling 641-236-6151. Create a great offer by adding words like "free" "personalized" "complimentary" or "customized." A sense of urgency often helps readers take an action, so think about inserting phrases like "for a limited time only" or "only 7 remaining"!

Mayflower Residents Welcome Kellie McGriff as Executive Director

On Friday, October 13th, residents of Grinnell's Mayflower Community welcomed Kellie McGriff as the new Executive Director. The reception was held in Mayflower's multipurpose Carman Center.

Steve Langerud, former Executive Director, highlighted Kellie's new role in his introduction to the afternoon event. Then, Kellie addressed the gathered residents.

Kellie talked about her professional journey in healthcare and, specifically, with Mayflower. She served as Mayflower's Director of Nursing, then sales and marketing and independent living activities director, followed by Director of Home Services, and, for the past five years, as Associate Director/Nursing Home Administrator.

Kellie termed Mayflower her "Place to Call Home." She expressed that she is looking forward to her new role as CEO and NHA (Nursing Home Administrator).

UnLOCKING the Power of Philanthropy: “We Give,” “G.P.C.F.,” and “Human Needs:” The Rest of the Story

As October ends, so does the “WE GIVE” campaign promoted annually by the Greater Poweshiek

Community Foundation (GPCF) and the Claude W.& Dolly Ahrens Foundation (CDAF). This joint effort is much to be celebrated, as it unites two community-minded foundations, generous donors, and compassionate human service providers, all toward building a stronger Grinnell and Poweshiek County.

Mayflower is a proud partner of GPCF and CDAF and eager to promote “WE GIVE.” Here is the rest of the story, Mayflower’s perspective.

In March 2011, the Mayflower Foundation transferred a small portion of its “Human Needs Endowment Fund” (HNEF) to GPCF to establish a permanent endowment fund there under the same name and for the same purpose. Why? Three reasons.

- 1) GPCF was well known for its investment management skills. As a “permanent” endowment, this new HNEF would make annual distributions exclusively to Mayflower for the care of residents in need. Mayflower’s vision was a fund that would grow in value and, thereby, make increasingly larger annual distributions to Mayflower.
- 2) In 2003, the Iowa legislature and governor enacted “Endow Iowa,” an incentive program to grow permanent endowment funds that benefit Iowa non-profit organizations and are held by “qualified” Iowa community foundations. (GPCF is “qualified” by meeting a minimum asset size.) The incentive? Donors to “Endow Iowa” funds are eligible for a 25% state of Iowa tax credit on the amount of their gifts, which saves 3-5 times more tax than an Iowa charitable income tax deduction.
- 3) Mayflower, GPCF, and CDAF are of one mind in promoting sound financial and charitable planning strategies; strategies that enable all Poweshiek County residents to make a difference for the people served by their favorite charitable organizations.

Since 2011, 165 donors have contributed $384,000 to the HNEF at GPCF, and coupled with strong investment growth the current fund balance is just under $600,000. In recent years, the fund has distributed more than $20,000 per year to Mayflower for the care of residents.

It is not too late to support the 2023 “We Give” campaign. Please visit GPCF or CDAF for more details. Support for Mayflower’s HNEF at GPCF can happen during “We Give” or anytime throughout the year.

If you wish to discuss HNEF or any other gift planning opportunity (whether for Mayflower or any other organization) I welcome hearing from you.

A Special Birthday at Mayflower

The Rev. Laird Keever, a resident in The Mayflower Community Health Center, has a storied life. A native of Seattle WA, Laird received his B.A. degree from Carlton College, Northfield MN, and then went on to study at the Harvard Divinity School and the Ecumenical Institute, Geneva, Switzerland.

Laird served a number of United Church of Christ churches in Iowa, the first being, ironically, the Mayflower Congregational UCC, Sioux City, Iowa. He was pastoring the First Congregational UCC in Webster City, Iowa, when he had a health episode in 2010. Laird subsequently moved to Mayflower's Beebe Assisted Living in 2011 where he lived until his recent move to Mayflower's Health Center.

Laird would describe himself as a cook, actor, pianist, and volunteer, as well as a pastor. In fact, he played the role of Charlie Brown in the Harvard production of "You Are a Good Man, Charlie Brown."

Recently, Laird celebrated a birthday at Mayflower. His sister Shelia Lenker and her husband Ron of Oregon came to Grinnell to celebrate with him.

Music at Mayflower

Talk about medicine for the ears...and the heart! In the last couple weeks, these musical offerings were provided for residents of The Mayflower Community and their guests.

Thursday, October

12th. Lyceum (once a week evening entertainment sponsored by Mayflower Residents Association). Grinnell's own Too Many String Band. Tom Lacina joined four Mayflower vocalists and string players, Betty and Sandy Moffett, Sig Barber, and Bob Cadmus.

Residents were encouraged to sing along as the Band performed old favorites and some of their own originals. The mix included "This Is Iowa," "Grandma's Feather Bed," "This Land Is Your Land," and "Blue Highway." Betty shared a vignette about Sandy's hand-made Blue Angel Mandolin.

Thursday, October 12th. Earlier in the afternoon. The Mayflower Residents Association Spiritual Life Committee, led by chair Pat Lipton, hosted an Old-Fashioned Hymn Sing. Rev. Bonnie Lipton moderated with brief background on each of about 20 songs. Karen Phillips was the song leader and Peggy Kolpin provided piano accompaniment. Mayflower's Director of Community Life, Leslie Jaworski, handled the visuals, displaying the words for each song.

Among the favorites were "Amazing Grace," "How Great Thou Art," and "In the Garden."

Thursday, October 5th. A week earlier at Lyceum. Grinnell College associate professor of music and saxophonist, Mark Laver presented "How Jazz Works," talking about chord progressions and the complexities of jazz music and artists/musicians. Gershwin was one of among many blues and jazz musicians. Besides playing some jazz sax, Mark asked for questions from the audience to which he responded with in-depth examples of jazz music and history.

Mark was accompanied by talented Grinnell College student, Phukao Prommolmardt, who played a number of piano pieces, including one of his own compositions. The evening's culmination was the Mayflower audience learning and performing a song. The time was educational and entertaining....and the music was fabulous.

Ink Wells and Fountain Pens in the Treasure Chest

During November and December, a collection of ink wells and fountain pens assembled by Ann Igoe will be on display in the Mayflower Residents Association Treasure Chest, located in the Pearson lobby. Ink wells were hollowed out stones in ancient times. They evolved to include decorative and ornate designs made of a variety of materials. With the invention of ballpoint pens and the typewriter, they eventually went out of fashion. Watch for more details in an upcoming Informer.

For information about the Treasure Chest, contact Doug or Ginny Cameron (236-4544), cameronv641@gmail.com or Janis Peak (236-8993).

Book Reviews

The First Ladies

Marie Benedict and Victoria Christopher Murray

This novel is written by the bestselling authors of The Personal Librarian. It is the story of the extraordinary partnership between First Lady Eleanor Roosevelt and civil rights activist Mary McLeod Bethune. As very different, yet equally formidable, passionate, and committed women, their singular friendship helped form the foundation for the modern civil rights movement.

I Have Some Questions for You

Rebecca Makkai

This is the story of 40 year old Bodie Kane, a journalist who hosts a podcast on women in film. She is invited back to her alma mater, Granby, to teach a two week workshop. One of her students decides to do a podcast on the murder of Thalia Keith, Bodie's former roommate. This opens up many questions about how this crime was handled, and whether the person in prison actually committed the crime. Bodie realizes that she might know something that holds the key to Thalia's real murderer and she doesn't stop asking questions until she discovers the answer.

Kiesel Theatre Movie Showings

Saturday Afternoon Movies Are Back (2:00pm)

October 28: *All About Eve (1950). From the moment she glimpses her idol at the stage door, Eve Harrington (Anne Baxter) moves relentlessly towards her goal: taking the reins of power from the great actress Margo Channing (Bette Davis). The cunning Eve maneuvers her way into Margo's Broadway role, becomes a sensation and even causes turmoil in the lives of Margo's director boyfriend (Gary Merrill), her playwright (Hugh Marlowe) and his wife (Celeste Holm). Black & White. NR. 138 minutes. English subtitles.

November 4th: And So It Goes (2014). Michael Douglas and Diane Keaton give captivating performances in a smart, sexy comedy about life, love, and second chances. When his estranged son leaves his granddaughter for him to raise, obnoxious realtor Oren (Douglas) recruits his sweet neighbor Leah (Keaton) to help. In the process Oren realizes it may not be too late to begin appreciating the people in his life. PG-13. English subtitles, 93 minutes.

November 11th: Billy Elliot (2006). This is a heartwarming story of a young boy from a working-class family who discovers a passion that will change his life forever. Eleven-year-old miner's son Billy is on his way to boxing lessons when he stumbles upon a ballet class. Billy secretly joins the class. Under the guidance of his teacher Billy's raw talent takes flight. But when his father discovers his son's ambition, Billy must fight for his dreams and his destiny. R, English subtitles, 111 minutes.

November 18th: Casablanca (1943). Casablanca: Easy to enter, but hard to leave, especially if your name is on the Nazis' most-wanted list. Atop that list is Czech Resistance leader Victor Laszlo (Paul Henreid) whose holy hope is Rick Blane (Humphrey Bogart), a cynical American who sticks his neck out for no one, especially Victor's wife Ilsa (Ingrid Bergman), the ex-lover who broke his heart. So, when Ilsa offers herself in exchange for Laszlo's safe transport out of the country, the bitter Rick must decide what's more important—his own happiness or the countless lives that hang in the balance. PG, B&W, English subtitles, 103 minutes.

November 25th: Angel (2006). A teenage girl with a vivid imagination knows what she wants and fearlessly goes after it. Angel Deverell (Romola Gari), the daughter of a grocer, fantasizes about living in the town mansion, Paradise House. She interests a London publisher (Sam Neill) in her romantic novel, and he manages to turn the over-the-top melodrama into a bestseller, allowing Angel to buy Paradise House and pursue the man of her dreams, a painter (Michael Fassbender) struggling for his own big break. NR, English subtitles 119 minutes.
